The Event Where You Can Explore and Compare Technology Solutions Your Police Agency Needs

No Cost to Your Police Agency— Ever.
Travel, Hotel and All Fees Covered 100% by Grant

You attend for free. Your travel, hotel, meals, and event fees are covered in full by a grant for departments making technology acquisitions. You'll fly to our host city, spend two nights at the event hotel, and meet with colleagues, peers, and leading suppliers of police technology, all covered by your grant

You'll Get Guidance and Compare Solutions to Make Better Choices for Your Department

At CopTech, it's all about helping you make better decisions on complex technologies. You'll have in-depth conversations with solutions providers in quiet surroundings. You'll receive the time and technical answers you need to compare competing options.

You'll get expert guidance and share ideas with your colleagues on what's working.

"Outstanding! Excellent! First Class" say past CopTech attendees

"Overall, a great event" said Baltimore PD's MIS Director. "One of the most productive events I've attended" said Brevard County Sheriff's Office. "We want to come to CopTech again," says the Chief of Frisco, TX. You'll find the information you need in a comfortable, relaxed, setting, and we assure you your time at CopTech will be well spent.

How Do I Register?

If you are Chief of Police, Deputy Chief, or you direct purchase of technology for a police agency with 100+ sworn officers and you have plans for technology purchases, you may qualify to attend. There are 50 grants available, made first-come, first serve.
